

Transportation Guide - Airports to Stanford Guest House

Please find below travel instructions for transportation between the three major airports in the Bay Area and the Stanford Guest House. Regardless of which form of transportation you choose, please be prepared to provide your name and a form of identification at the security kiosk for the shared entrance for the Stanford Guest House and the SLAC Accelerator National Laboratory. Please note that we do not recommend using public transportation due to both the time required and high possibility of delays.

The contact information for the Stanford Guest House is:
